

GSA's 49th ANNUAL IRMCO CONFERENCE

Leading Reform for Mission Performance

April 11-14, 2010
Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay
Cambridge, MD
www.irmco.gov

Connecting government's senior managers and program managers from the human capital, information technology, acquisition and finance communities.

Government's management conference exclusively by and for government executives and program managers

The General Services Administration (GSA) invites you to attend IRMCO, government's management conference where policy guidance is delivered by leading organizations such as the President's Office of Management and Budget and the Federal Management Councils.

At IRMCO you will hear about the administration's plans and priorities and embrace change by learning about what lies ahead.

Attend IRMCO to

- Share the most current thinking about policies and strategies of the administration
- Help executives achieve their agencies' mission and objectives
- Create a network of peers within the executive realm of government in order to foster interagency knowledge sharing, coordination and collaboration

Who attends IRMCO

IRMCO is open to human capital, information technology, acquisition and finance senior managers including GS-13, GS-14, and GS-15's; Program Managers seeking certified training in the area of Program and Project Management; and members of the Senior Executive Service (SES). Only government may register for IRMCO.

Visit www.irmco.gov for conference details and to register

Space is limited so Register Today!

Interagency Resources Management
Conference (IRMCO) is owned and produced by U.S. General Services Administration

GSA's 49th ANNUAL IRMCO CONFERENCE

Leading Reform for Mission Performance

GSA is pleased to announce the following keynotes and speakers:

The Honorable John Berry Director, U.S. Office of Personnel Management

John Berry is the Federal Government's Chief People Person, responsible for recruiting, hiring, and setting benefits policies for 1.9 million Federal civilian employees.

William D. Eggers Co-Author, If We Can Put a Man on the Moon... Getting Big Things Done in Government; Global Director, Deloitte Research-Public Sector

William (Bill) Eggers is one of the country's best known authorities on government reform. An author, columnist, and popular speaker for two decades, he has built a significant following among public sector thought leaders in the U.S., Canada and overseas.

Martha Johnson Administrator, U.S. General Services Administration

Martha Johnson most recently served as co-lead for the Obama Presidential Transition Agency Review Team for GSA, and served as GSA Chief of Staff from 1996 to 2001. From 1993 to 1996, she was Assistant Deputy Secretary at the Department of Commerce. Under the Clinton Administration, Johnson also served in the Office of Presidential Personnel.

Vivek Kundra Federal Chief Information Officer and Administrator for E-Government and Information Technology Office of Management and Budget

Vivek Kundra is responsible for technology operations and strategy for 86 agencies. Before Kundra came to the District, he served as Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Technology for the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Dr. Shelley Metzenbaum Associate Director for Personnel and Performance Management, Office of Management and Budget

Dr. Shelley Metzenbaum is one of the country's leading experts on performance management. She founded the Collins Center for Public Management at the McCormack Graduate School of Policy Studies at the University of Massachusetts, Boston. She also has served as executive director of the Executive Session on Public Sector Performance Management at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

Danny Werfel Controller Office of Federal Financial Management

Danny Werfel is responsible for coordinating OMB's efforts to initiate government-wide improvements in all areas of financial management.

Visit www.irmco.gov for an updated list of government and industry leaders who will be sharing their thoughts and visions at IRMCO 2010.

Continuous Learning Points for Program Managers

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has recognized that well-trained and experienced Program Managers are critical to the acquisition process and the successful accomplishment of mission goals. Attendees at IRMCO Program Management sessions will be eligible to receive certificates of training indicating the completion of 16 hours of continuous learning points for Federal Acquisition Project/ Program Management certification purposes.

The IRMCO Award

The IRMCO Award is a prestigious award presented each year to a single individual and team. The IRMCO awards have monetary recognition of $2,000 (individual) and $5,000 (team). These awards are given to those who have demonstrated exceptional ability to operate across organizational boundaries to improve the Government's services to its citizens.

Networking Events

IRMCO features a diverse set of networking and team-building opportunities, including:

- Golf Tournament: Sunday, April 11
- Golf Awards Reception: Sunday, April 11
- Tennis and Recreation: Tuesday, April 13
- IRMCO Late Night: Join friends and colleagues each night of the conference in Michener's Lounge to relax and enjoy dynamic networking opportunities.

IRMCO·2010

April 11-14, 2010

Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay

Cambridge, MD

www.irmco.gov

The cut-off date for guaranteeing rooms in the conference hotel is March 26 —so register now!

Visit www.irmco.gov for conference details and to register

Space is limited so Register Today!